

First Friday: 5 p.m.-8 p.m.

Exhibit openings at both take place on First Fridays from 5-8 pm and are free and open to the public. Galleries open on First Friday include the Paul Jones Gallery, Harrison Galleries, O'Connor Studios, Grace Aberdeen Habitat Alchemy, the makers market, The Arts Council and The University of Alabama Galleries in the Dinah Washington Cultural Arts Center, and the Betak/Frangoulis Art Gallery at Canterbury Chapel on The University of Alabama campus. Hours vary during holidays.

Visit: http://tuscarts.org/firstfriday_artnight

Harrison Galleries, LLC

2315 University Blvd., Tuscaloosa

Opening receptions take place on First Friday.

Permanent collection includes a variety of 19th and early 20th century works in oil and prints, also prints and original works by Basil Ede and award-winning photographs by local artists on the second floor. Special exhibits by local artists and groups available throughout the calendar year.

Visit: www.facebook.com/pages/Harrison-Galleries

O'Connor Art Studios

2316 University Blvd. , Suite #300, Tuscaloosa

Open on First Friday featuring demonstrations and displays of art by artist Caleb O'Connor. Displays of art by current students are also featured.

Tours of the studio are by appointment

Serving the local community in providing art education and visual fine art experiences, O'Connor Art Studios offers courses in a variety of mediums and methods. The studio is also open to those wishing to meet the local artist Caleb O'Connor, and see him at work.

Visit: www.oconnorartstudios.com

Grace Aberdeen Habitat Alchemy

2124 9th Street, Tuscaloosa

Open on First Fridays featuring art, music and more
Monday-Friday noon-5 p.m. and Saturday 11 a.m.-2 p.m.

Retail and gallery space featuring upcycled furniture and vintage finds transformed into special original items for the home. Works with many neo-crafters and artists from around the U.S. that believe art will help humanity and the home.

Visit: graceaberdean.com

the makers market

401 22nd Ave., Downtown Tuscaloosa

Hours Monday-Friday 10-6 p.m. and Saturday 9-4 p.m.

Serving as an outlet for local crafters and artists, The Makers Market is a retail store located in a historic building in Downtown Tuscaloosa. Offered are a wide variety of items for sale including quilting, photography, jewelry, soaps, wood items, weavings, knittings, oil paintings, accessories, mixed media and much more. Each crafter or artist creates their own vignette to display their items.

Visit: www.themakersmarketalabama.com

Paul R. Jones Gallery of Art

2308 Sixth St., Downtown Tuscaloosa

Open on First Fridays from 12 noon-8 p.m.

Hours 9 a.m.-5 p.m. weekdays

Features rotating exhibits year round from the collection of Paul R. Jones, who, during his lifetime, amassed one of the largest collections of African-American art and donated 1,700 pieces of his collection to The University of Alabama in 2008.

Visit: art.ua.edu/gallery/prj

Dinah Washington Cultural Arts Center Galleries

620 Greensboro Ave., Tuscaloosa

Rotating exhibits open with receptions on First Fridays.

The Arts Council Gallery features group and solo exhibits by local and regional artists in a wide range of media and styles. Hours weekdays 9-noon and 1-4 p.m.

The University of Alabama Gallery offers a year-round schedule of exhibitions of artistic works, artifacts, textiles and more from permanent collections held by The University of Alabama as well as works by faculty, students, guest artists and designers.

Hours weekdays 9 a.m.-5 p.m. and noon-8 p.m. on First Fridays.

Open on First Friday on The University of Alabama campus

The Betak/Frangoulis Art Gallery at Canterbury Chapel

812 5th Avenue, Tuscaloosa

Rotating art exhibits with openings on First Fridays

The Betak/Frangoulis Art Gallery at Canterbury Chapel is an exhibit space for 2-D artwork. Monthly shows feature local painters, photographers, and mixed-media artists. Exhibits may be viewed during weekly business hours.

Visit: www.facebook.com/BetakFrangoulis-Art-Gallery-at-Canterbury-Chapel