20th Druid Arts Awards

The Druid Arts Awards were established to honor the patrons, sponsors, artists, educators and volunteers who have achieved distinction in the arts over a number of years in Tuscaloosa County.
Background

Constructed in 1937 through funds from the Public Works Administration (PWA), the historic Bama Theatre continues to captivate audiences with its twinkling lights and exciting year-round performance calendar. Managed by The Arts Council and occupied over 300 days per year, the venue hosts events presented by the organization and also those sponsored by outside promoters. From Joan Baez, the Fab Four and the Bama Art House Film Series to local and statewide art exhibits, the Bama is a cornerstone of cultural activity and community events in Tuscaloosa and West Alabama. Opened in 1938, this is the 75th anniversary year of the much loved anchor of downtown Tuscaloosa.

Fundraising

As of June 17, 2013

- $1,007,200 raised (including $500,000 from the Tuscaloosa County Commission)
- $118,300 needed to complete construction on the first floor
- Additional funds needed to outfit offices, black box theatre and for operating costs
- In 2013, a manager will be needed to run night and weekend events at the CAC that will include a black box theatre providing family programming, rehearsal/meeting space for rent and also provide educational opportunities. In addition, the CAC will house offices for local arts groups and gallery spaces for The University of Alabama and The Arts Council. The City of Tuscaloosa received a $1.5 million HUD grant to renovate the infrastructure of the building with The Arts Council concluding the project at an estimated cost of $1.25 million. These funds are currently being raised by The Arts Council from within our community.

CAC Events

- Tours of the CAC while under construction are available anytime by contacting The Arts Council.
- August 29, 2013: Grand Opening of the CAC on Dinah Washington’s Birthday

“We need people who think with the creative side of their brains—people who have played in a band, who have painted... it enhances symbiotic thinking capabilities, not always thinking in the same paradigm, learning how to kick-start a new idea, or how to get a job done better, less expensively.”
