HISTORY AND PURPOSE

Established in 1970 by a group of citizens dedicated to the arts, the mission of The Arts Council is to promote and encourage the arts and humanities in Tuscaloosa County. The Arts Council serves as the umbrella organization for 50 Member Organizations, offers educational programs, and manages the historic Bama Theatre and the Dinah Washington Cultural Arts Center.

BAMA THEATRE

Established in 1938 through funds from the Public Works Administration (PWA), the historic Bama Theatre continues to captivate audiences with its twinkling lights and exciting year-round performance calendar. Managed by The Arts Council and occupied almost 300 days per year, the theatre is a cornerstone of cultural activity and community events in Tuscaloosa and West Alabama. The venue provides a rental location for productions presented by non-profit member organizations and community groups as well as concerts presented by outside promoters. Programming presented by The Arts Council includes the Bama Art House Film Series, educational programs, and local and statewide art exhibits.

DINAH WASHINGTON CULTURAL ARTS CENTER

The Dinah Washington Cultural Arts Center (CAC) is a hub for the arts in Tuscaloosa, managed and maintained by The Arts Council. The CAC houses the Alabama Power Grand Hall, perfect for weddings and private event rentals, and The Rotary Club of Tuscaloosa Black Box Theatre which provides a location for performances in an intimate setting for family programming and educational opportunities. The University of Alabama rents a gallery space and The Arts Council maintains a gallery within the CAC. The facility also houses offices for the Tuscaloosa Symphony Orchestra and Tuscaloosa Community Dancers.

COMMUNITY & ADVOCACY

The Arts Council serves as the umbrella organization for over 50 non-profit group (IRS-501c3) member organizations representing the visual, performing and literary arts, museums, and philanthropic organizations. Local community members and corporations can also join as individuals or corporate sponsors. The Council also sponsors the Druid Arts Awards and Community Arts Conversations. With two gallery spaces available, the venues provide local visual artists spaces to display their art, as well as competitions that provide advancement and connection with other artists. The Tuscaloosa City Schools hosted its 4th annual Canstruction, Jr. event in 2017, providing the second opportunity for unique student works to be displayed at the Dinah Washington Cultural Arts Center.

EDUCATION

The Arts Council provides arts education opportunities to students at the Bama Theatre, the Dinah Washington Cultural Arts Center, and on site at West Alabama schools through Bama Fanfare and Spectra. Disciplines include theatre, music, dance, visual art, and poetry. The Arts Council's programming exposes students to a wide range of activities conducive to academic and social development. Additional programming includes Poetry Out Loud, Visual Art Achievement Awards, Teacher Workshops, and support of Westwood Elementary through the Chamber of Commerce of West Alabama Adopt-A-School Program.

IMPACT

Students engaged in arts learning have higher GPAs and standardized test scores, and lower drop-out rates. The arts and culture sector is a $730 billion industry which represents 4.2 percent of the nation's GDP—a larger share of the economy than transportation, tourism, and agriculture (U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis). The nonprofit arts industry alone generates $135 billion in economic activity annually (spending by organizations and their audiences), which supports 4.1 million jobs and generates $22.3 billion in government revenue. Creativity is among the top 5 applied skills sought by business leaders with 72 percent saying creativity is of high importance when hiring. The Conference Board's Ready to Innovate report concludes "The arts—music, creative writing, drawing, dance—provide skills sought by employers of the 3rd millennium."
