Capacity

The capacity for the space is contingent on the layout and set up details planned for the event. To assist with this process, we have included the common capacity breakdown below:

- Wedding Ceremony or Reception/Private Event Rental –
150 guests with limited dance floor
- Wedding Ceremony and Reception –
100 guests with limited dance floor
Transition between ceremony and reception or guests at their reception seating is commonly seen.
- Seated Dinner –
175 without dance floor

General Conduct & Equipment Policies

- Use of tables and chairs is included in all rental rates. Setup of tables and chairs are provided by the venue within the current rental rate prior to your arrival. Failure to provide a layout or changes needed during the event will be the responsibility of the renter. It is the renter's responsibility to arrange setup and the removal of all décor items within the rental time period. All items must be returned to their original location prior to rental time with the exception of tables and chairs as all items must be sanitized by our team post-event.
- Garbage receptacles are located throughout the venue and included in all rental rates. Clean up and trash disposal are included in the rate. Clients who utilize cardboard boxes and other shipping parcels for packaging of items must arrange disposal or recycling of all.
- At no time should the client and vendors be permitted to handle or use CAC equipment without the permission of the manager on duty. Please always treat the venue with respect.
- Smoking is NOT permitted inside the venue or within 30 feet of all entrances and exits. This includes e-cigarettes, vapes, and similar products.
- Recording and flash photography are prohibited during performances.
- All children must be attended at all times. No running or pulling on curtains is allowed.
- The Arts Council is not responsible for any items left unattended within the venue. Lost and found items will remain in the venue (if found) for a consecutive 5 business day period. Items must be recovered within that time and picked up by the owner.
- Animals are prohibited in all areas except for dogs assisting persons with disabilities.
- Parking is available in the free parking deck one block away from the venue. Street parking is also available in the front and surrounding the venue.

Decorations

Each client is required to submit decoration plans for approval no later than 30 days prior to event.

- No helium balloons may be used inside the venue. No bubbles inside the venue.
- No scotch tape may be used on any surface in the venue.
- Painter's tape or masking tape may be used, but not on painted surfaces.
- No nailing or putting holes in any surface in the venue.
- No painting or spray painting in the venue or on the sidewalk outside the venue.
- No lights or decorations can be hung from any ceiling in the venue.
- No glitter or confetti may be used inside or outside the venue.
- An Arts Council staff member can take down art on the interior rotating walls for removal during the rental period, but only in advance. The hanging of renter art or decorations on the walls must be approved in advance by the CAC manager. Linens and other décor are not provided by the venue.

Getaways

- Getaway items must be approved in advance by the CAC manager. If the renter intends to use sparklers, they must provide a container with sand to dispose of spent sparklers.
- Prohibited getaway items: rice, birdseed, popcorn, glitter, confetti, and other non-bio-degradable items.

Safety

The renter will comply with all laws, orders, rules, fire codes, and regulations of federal, state, county, and municipal authorities. The renter will also comply with all policies and procedures for the use of the Cultural Arts Center as set out by the Arts Council.

Egress, Ingress, and Thoroughfares

- All modes of egress and ingress including signage must be kept clear and free of drapery and other décor accents at all times.

First Aid Policy

- Renter is responsible for supplying a first aid kit for the event.
- The Arts Council is not responsible for ambulance, doctor or hospital expenses.

Fire Safety Policy

- Use of candles in the venue must be approved in advance by the CAC Manager.
- Candles must be in glass containers and the flame must be below the top of the vase.
- No candles are allowed in the Black Box Theatre. Avoid curtains.
- Unity candles for weddings are approved. Flameless, battery-powered candles are preferred.
- Fire extinguishers, sprinklers, fire hose cabinets, & fire alarms may not be covered or blocked at any time.
- Smoke machines are not allowed in the space. Fog machines or cold sparklers must be approved in advance of the event.

Security Policy

- The Venue Manager will arrange security for all events. Additional security may be required at an event at the discretion of the CAC manager and will be billed and discussed prior to the event.

Objectionable Patrons

- Cultural Arts Center Management reserves the right to remove anyone who is objectionable or unruly from the premises.

Required Event Insurance

The Arts Council requires that all non-member organizations submit a certificate of liability insurance. It is required that the COLI list a minimum of $2 million annual general aggregate and $1 million per occurrence. The COLI must be submitted no later than 60 days prior to the event. We recommend contacting commonly used companies like K&K Event Insurance, Markel Event Insurance, or the Event Helper for policy information. Insurance can also be purchased via your current home, auto, or commercial insurance provider. The estimated cost is contingent on the type of event/activities taking place and if bar services will be available at the event.

Catering

All food must be prepared by restaurants or licensed catering companies approved to cater at the CAC. Caterer documentation must be on file and approved no later than 60 days prior to the event. For access to the current list of caterers who have up to date information on file, please contact the Venue Manager.

General Rules:

- No food can be brought in that is “home-prepared.”
- No drop off services will be permitted.
- It is the responsibility of the client to secure and arrange full catering services.
- The catering services bill will be separate from the CAC venue rental and will be billed directly with the renter.
- The catering policy does not include candy stations, milestone cakes, and other sweets. Therefore, caterers and sweet providers are not required to provide documentation for those items.
- Face coverings and gloves are required for staff of all catering providers until further notice.

Catering Prep Kitchen

A catering prep kitchen is included in your rental to assist your licensed caterer with providing food and beverage services. No cooking can be conducted on-site.

- Ice machine
- Industrial sink
- Two hot box proofers/heated cabinets
- One refrigerator
- One freezer

Alcohol

Casual Class Bar Services holds the state ABC Alcohol Retail License for the CAC and therefore is the sole provider of alcohol at the CAC. All alcohol must be purchased and distributed by Casual Class Bar Services. According to state law, no alcohol may be sold, dispersed or brought on the property unless it is provided by Casual Class Bar Services. There are no exceptions to this policy, and it will be strictly enforced. All persons must be 21+ years old to receive alcoholic beverages.

No alcoholic beverages of any kind are allowed outside the venue unless downtown entertainment district guidelines are being followed.

Clients must secure the contract with Casual Class Bar Services no later than 60 days prior to the event.
The contract is between Casual Class Bar Services and the renter.
The renter will be billed outside of your venue rental.

Event Cancellations (Arts Council Policy)

The renter must fully understand that by reserving the space, other renters are not able to; therefore, the Arts Council will likely miss all other opportunities to replace the rental. In the event of a cancellation for any reason, the client will be given the option to reschedule their event beginning 14 business days from the original event date in writing pending calendar and staffing.

Cancellations must be made known in writing no later than 30 days prior to the event. In cases where 30 days is not given, the renter will assume a 25% administrative fee due within 30 days of the cancellation notice. Rescheduling opportunities are made available up to 2 times, without fee, within a calendar year. Vendor policies will vary, but please become aware of the rules and regulations with each vendor you select to be a part of your event day.
